- 1 It is morning.
- 2 A hare peeps out from his rabbit hole.
- 3 The rabbit hole is on a meadow
- 4 in the middle of a forest glade.
- 5 He is having his morning drink.

- 6 Suddenly, he hears some noise and quickly
- 7 drops back down into his rabbit hole.
- 8 It is a young hunter.
- 9 He is wearing a blue cap and a blue vest.
- 10 He carries a backpack.

- 11 He comes to the glade to catch a hare.
- 12 He can see the ears of the hare.
- 13 The ears stick out from the hole in the middle of the glade.

- 14 He lays his trap.

- 15 A big man with moustache comes running
- 16 and jumps down on the meadow from a cliff.
- 17 He is wearing a cowboy
- 18 hat and a red shirt.
- 19 He lays his trap.

20 The young hunter lays a carrot in the trap.

21 The carrot is a bait.

22 The hare peeps out again.

23 He can smell the carrot.

24 He loves carrots.

25 Now the cowboy hunter punches

26 his hand into the ground

27 and pulls out a bigger carrot.

28 The hare is watching both of them.

29 The young hunter picks up his backpack.

30 It is full of carrots.

31 He empties all of it on the grass.

32 Now, the cowboy hunter brings a truck full of carrots
 33 and empties all of it on the grass.
 34 The cowboy hunter now has
 35 more carrots than the young hunter.

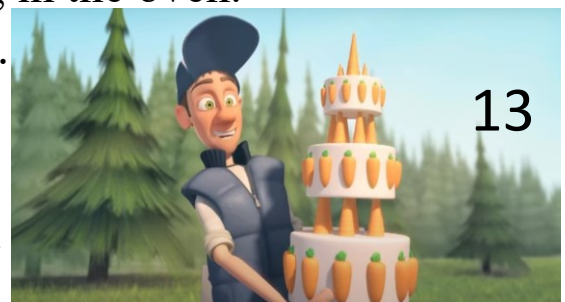

12 36 The hare's head turns left and right.
 37 He wants the carrots so much.

38 Both hunters are competing.
 39 Both of them want to catch the hare.
 40 It is a competition.
 41 They are competing with each other over the hare.
 42 The hare will go to the hunter that has the most carrots
 43 ... or the biggest carrot.

44 Now, the young hunter bakes something in the oven.
 45 It is a big and very delicious carrot cake.
 46 It smells amazing.
 47 The hare is so foodie.
 48 He takes the carrot cake out of the oven.
 49 The hare wants the cake so badly.

50 How can the cowboy hunter compete with this now?
 51 Wait! He has a plan.

- 52 He grabs a remote control and brings a helicopter
 53 with a huge carrot hanging down from it.
 54 It is enormous.
 55 It is the biggest carrot in the world.
 56 The hare watches the huge carrot hanging in the air.

- 57 His jaw drops.
 58 He has never seen a carrot so big
 59 The huge carrot falls over the carrot cake.
 60 It smashes the carrot cake and the trap.

- 61 Now, the young hunter is very angry.
 62 He throws a carrot at the cowboy hunter.

- 63 The cowboy hunter catches the carrot
 64 and throws it back.

- 65 Now, the young hunter takes out his gun
 66 and shoots more carrots at the other hunter.

- 67 The other hunter takes out his gun.
 68 His gun is bigger.
 69 He shoots more carrots.
 70 They fight over the hare.

- 71 They keep fighting while the hare climbs up on the huge carrot.
 72 He loves this huge carrot so much.
 73 He is overjoyed. He hugs it.

- 74 The hunters are busy fighting each other.
 75 Suddenly, a falcon swoops down from the sky
 76 and grabs the hare and flies away.
 77 Both hunters now stop fighting.
 78 They realize both of them lost the hare.
 79 None of them could catch the hare.

Listening Exercise – Page 9

Instructions:

The teacher puts in numbers (1 to max, depending on number of rows in each column; A, B, C, D) randomly first and then reads out the words from 1 to max by reading out loud: word + its number.

The students then put in the right number in the box next to the word they think they heard.

This exercise is to test whether the students recognize the words after hearing the words pronounced.

Hug ... 1

Jaw ... 2

Catch ... 3

Hunter	4
Vest	9
Most carrots	7
Catch	3
Hug	1
Huge	8
Lay a trap	6
Full of carrots	11
In the middle of	12
Jaw	2
Shoot	10
Enormous	5

Start numbering with the easiest words and leave the most difficult words to the last.

Repeat each word+number at least 3 times with enough pause.

Once each column is done, go back and repeat the column more quickly one more time to give them a chance to check answers.
